SUPPLEMENT TO APPLICATION OF GODADDY.COM, LLC

WHEREAS, on August 22, 2016, GoDaddy.com, LLC ("Applicant") submitted an application to the Public Service Commission ("Commission") for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold interexchange telecommunications services in the State of Delaware (the "Application");

WHEREAS, on September 13, 2016, the Commission, through Public Utility Analyst II, Toni Loper, requested that Applicant provide additional information necessary to recommend approval of the Application (the "September 13th Request");

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to 26 Del. Admin. C. § 4001 and the Rules of the Commission, Applicant hereby provides this Supplement to the Application in response to and as requested by the September 13th Request:

1. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of Applicant's Delaware Business License issued by the Delaware Division of Revenue;

2. In response to the Commission's request for a copy of Applicant's certified financial statements, the Applicant hereby states that it is a disregarded entity for tax purposes and does not have separate audited financial statements. Rather, all financial information for the Applicant is included in the audited financial statements of its parent company, GoDaddy Inc. The most recent 10-K (and amendment thereto) and the most recent 10-Q for GoDaddy Inc. were attached as Exhibit E to the Application. GoDaddy.com is fully funded and requires no external funding. Moreover, the Applicant does not plan to construct any telecommunications facilities in Delaware and therefore will not require additional capitalization or resource expenditures for such operations.

WHEREFORE, Applicant, by its undersigned counsel, respectfully requests that this Commission issue a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity authorizing it to provide resold interexchange telecommunications services throughout the entire State of Delaware as set forth in the Application.

Respectfully submitted,
